

Leadership Contact Bio...

Layne Lebo is committed to seeing local churches become places where individuals and surrounding communities are transformed by the power of Jesus Christ. Layne has served in pastoral ministry at the Mechanicsburg BIC Church (McBIC) for 19 years, the past 9 as senior pastor. Through the course of his ministry Layne has grown increasingly aware of the power of prayer in seeing life transformation happen. He has been the beneficiary of a strong prayer ministry at his church, and he wants to see other pastors, churches and communities experience the blessing of a strong and vibrant prayer ministry. Layne holds Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry degrees from Asbury Theological Seminary. He and his wife Greta have three children, Bronte, Treyton and Kerrigan.

Texts:        Prayer—Does It Make Any Difference? by Philip Yancey
                  Partners in Prayer by John C. Maxwell

Objectives:

- To remind pastors of the importance of prayer in seeing life transformation happen in our churches and communities.
- To encourage pastors to mobilize personal prayer partners within their churches.
- To take intentional steps in creating church cultures that are characterized by prayer.

Sessions:

- 1) “We Can’t Give Away What We Don’t Have”—The Pastor’s personal life.
- 2) “Who Are Our Aaron’s & Hurs?”—Establishing a Team of Prayer Partners
- 3) “Making Prayer A Priority”—Developing a Culture of Prayer
- 4) “What Do We Really Believe About Prayer?”
- 5) “Lives Transformed Through Prayer”—An exploration of Healing Prayer Ministry
- 6) “Transforming Our Communities”—Moving prayer outside the 4 walls of our churches
- 7) “Where The Rubber Meets The Road”—Taking intentional steps to see prayer come alive in our churches